Minutes of the Parish meeting held on Thursday 12th May 2016

1. Apologies were received from Kevin Lancaster and Mel Mackie
2. Chairman Annette presented her report (see attached).
There were no questions.

Clerk Phil presented the accounts and the balance at the end of March was £2140.78, the precept of £2000 has since been received.

3. Observations by County and District councillors were not available as no councillors were present.

4. Representations were made by Sue Ryall as chairman of the Garsdale Red Squirrel Group which was doing well. 95 hectares of forestry were being preserved and Tilhil had been thwarted in their attempt to fell Dandra Garth Forest and a new management plan was being produced. Access had been granted and drays will be protected. £6000 had been received from YDNP for a 5 year survey. There were now 38 members and were doing some fund raising.

Ist Responders has been doing well and are at capacity of 5 and at present do not need any more recruits. There was coverage all the way from The Moorcock now. Will need some fundraising and will set up a meeting to discuss this. There had been some confusion at the call centre resulting in responders being sent to other areas such as Morecombe.

Meeting closed at 8.10pm.
